

Domestic Violence Department

The Absentee Shawnee Tribe's Domestic Violence Department is still here for you in this time. If you or someone you know is needing emergency assistance related to domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, stalking or sex trafficking, please feel free to call or text (405) 432-9657 for additional information or help. Should you call the number and it goes to voicemail, please leave a message with your name and state that it is safe to return your call. If texting is a safer option, please state that in your message along with any times of the day that it is not safe to receive a text. In either forms of communication, if you feel that your phone is being monitored be sure to delete any communications to this number. We can help access shelters, provide advocacy, case management, file for emergency protective orders, and provide emergency food/clothing assistance as it relates to fleeing the home.

If you find yourself in an emergency situation that requires immediate attention from law enforcement please call 911 or the AST Police Department at (405)275-3200.
